

AP Literature Summer Assignment for 2017-2018

Read the novels The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn by Mark Twain and Brave New World by Aldous Huxley. Carefully construct answers to the following questions listed below. You must address all three questions.

1. The main characters in each novel can be seen as leaders in their societies; whether silent or loud. Using the characters actions and dialogue, explain how the main character in each novel can be portrayed as a leader.
2. There are multiple themes present in each novel. One of the more powerful in each is freedom and confinement. Using direct evidence, explain how this theme can be followed through the plot lines of each novels. Be sure to begin this answer with a claim statement and correctly use MLA documentation.
3. The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn and Brave New World have different tones. Explain how the author of each novel establishes the tone and cite specific examples from the text to support your argument. Be sure to use correct MLA documentation.

All summer assignments must be completed and turned in on the first day of class. All summer assignments must be typed using Times New Roman 12 point font and be double spaced. You may either bring a typed copy with you to class or email it directly to your instructor. When you are finished with the assignment, you should have somewhere around three to four double spaced pages. Your novels must be fully annotated with either sticky notes or notes written in the margins of the pages.

Please feel free to contact us at bridget.bowser@dmschools.org if you don't understand any part of this assignment.